

What Am I?

1 Use your knowledge of measurement to answer the following riddles.

a I am measured in length.
There are 10 of me in a metre.
I have 100mm in me.
I am twice as long as 5cm.

I am _____

b I am measured in volume.
I half-fill a milk carton.
I am measured in millilitres.
I have twice the volume of a cup.

I am _____

c I am measured in weight.
There are 1000 of me in a kilogram.
My name is part of the word "kilogram".

I am _____

d I am measured in volume.
You would use me to measure the volume of a swimming pool.
I have 1000 millilitres in me.

I am _____

e I am measured in length.
Many roads are as long as I am.
I have 10000 metres in me.
I am half as long as twenty kilometres.

I am _____

f I am measured in length.
There are 10 of me in a kilometre.
I have 10000cm in me.
I am twice as long as 50m.

I am _____

g I am measured in weight.
I am heavier than a mouse but lighter than a guinea pig.
There are 100 of me in a kilogram.

I am _____

h I am measured in volume.
I contain 250 millilitres.
There are 4 of me in a litre.

I am _____

How do you think you did?

Fantastic

OK

Not so good